

The International Health Regulations

- Legally-binding global agreement about procedures to protect public health
- Mandated by WHO constitution
- Adopted at the World Health Assembly & binding on all of WHO's Member States
- The result of direct instructions from States to WHO

