

Dr Zimicki is a demographer and epidemiologist with almost 35 years of experience in child health, infectious diseases and health behavior change. She currently works at FHI360 (formerly AED), where she is Technical Director of the USAID PREVENT Project, which focuses on emerging pandemic threats.

Dr Zimicki has been director of two global USAID projects and has managed the provision of technical assistance in behavior change and communications approaches to more than 20 countries. She currently chairs the STH Advisory Committee of Children Without Worms, a partnership between GlaxoSmithKline, Johnson & Johnson, and The Task Force for Global Health; previously she served as Chair of the WHO/TDR Steering Committee on Implementation Research and the Task Force on Operational Research on Bednets. She has worked in more than 25 countries in Africa and Asia, with long stints in Bangladesh (5 years) and Uganda (3 years) and lengthy assignments (6-8 months) in Senegal, The Gambia and the Philippines.

She received her PhD in Demography from the University of Pennsylvania and her Masters in Epidemiology and Tropical Public Health from Harvard School of Public Health.
